for time you spent reviewing SPII with me today. I appreciate all your comments and ideas and will endeavor to address all of them. I typed Ed's comments up for him and will have let him know that he can touch base with you if he has questions I can't answer.

I should have my revisions complete later this week, except possibly the public parcel rationales/adjustments - I want to discuss with Ed first to get his thoughts and develop an approach/rationale, and I don't yet know how soon that might be possible.

I'll keep you posted on anything I know in regards to his timing/availability and how it might affect SPII or Venice.

Warmest regards,
